

Entry Level Occupational Health and Safety Manager

Description:

A growing food processing company is currently seeking a motivated college graduate for a newly created Health and Safety Manager Position.

Requires the following:

2 or 4 year degree from accredited institution in one of the following is preferred:

Occupational Health and Safety, Environmental health and Safety, Safety or Environmental Management, Safety or Environmental science.

GSP, ASP, OHST or CHST certifications desired but not required.

Skills required but not limited to:

Basic knowledge of industrial hygiene

Understanding of Lockout/Tagout electrical safety

Understanding the principals behind machine guarding

Knowledge of regulatory compliance laws

Computer skills including data entry, graphing and tracking metrics

Demonstrates effective communication skills, can manage multiple simultaneous projects, strong training and interpersonal skills. Exhibits positivity, passion, integrity and responsibility.

Responsibilities to include but not limited to:

Coordinating and performing training in all safety and health areas

Managing safety data sheets

Writing, maintaining and updating health and safety plans

Conducting walk through inspections

Participating in accident investigation and/or emergency response scenarios

Understanding recordkeeping requirements and ensuring proper compliance with all OSHA regulations

