

Quality Assurance Technician

Description:

Entry level position for a motivated individual to perform duties as a Quality Assurance Technician for a fast paced and growing food processing facility.

Requires the following:

2 or 4 year degree from accredited institution or equivalent

Knowledge of HACCP and SQF programs [ideal but not required]

Skills required but not limited to:

Exceptional problem-solving skills.

He/she must possess excellent interpersonal skills

Able to juggle multiple projects at once

Working knowledge of Microsoft Office programs

Strong oral and written language skills

Strong analytical and problem solving skills

Able to work independently with minimal supervision

Responsibilities to include but not limited to:

Coordinate the Quality Assurance inspection and monitoring functions within the plant

Assure compliance with Company and Regulatory Policies, procedures, and specifications

Monitors QA procedures to, ensure that all processes are operating within company and regulatory specifications.

Works with Production staff to determine causes of process deviations and failures.